THIS MATTER is before the Court sua sponte to amend the Judgment of Conviction filed herein on June 15, 2005.

During the sentencing hearing conducted on June 2, 2005, the Defendant objected to the Court's order that he reimburse the United States for the cost of his court-appointed attorney.<sup>1</sup> The Defendant alleged that his only contact with his appointed counsel, David Belser, was during a jail visit. The Court deferred placing this requirement in the Defendant's judgment until a review of Mr. Belser's attorney voucher was conducted. After reviewing the relevant documents, the Court finds that Mr. Belser represented the Defendant for only a short period of time, however, the hours he requested for approval were appropriately billed. A copy of Mr. Belser's attorney voucher was provided to Defendant's current counsel; Mr. Coleman has concurred with the Court's review and the accuracy of Mr. Belser's billings.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that the Clerk prepare an amended judgment of conviction including therein that the Defendant be required to reimburse the United States for the cost of his court-appointed attorney in the amount of $720.

The Clerk is directed to file the letter from Mr. Coleman to the Court.

Signed: June 20, 2005
